CONNECT & CHECK | SHARE | PRESENT | APPLY | RECALL & REVIEW

Slides	Phase	Purpose	Teacher guidance
1–2	Launch / purpose	Establish the enquiry and the lesson journey.	Ask: how much of your life is really your own choice?
3–4	Diagnostic	Surface assumptions without correcting them.	Insist on reasons; preserve answers for end-of-lesson reflection.
5–8	Sociological explanation	Move from individual stories to patterns and evidence.	Repeat: How would we know?
9–10	Core vocabulary	Society, culture, norms, values, status and role.	Access: concrete examples. Stretch: ask how concepts connect.
11–15	Structure, agency, socialisation	Build the core conceptual framework.	Misconception: influence is not determination.
16–18	Image/application	Make hidden social expectations visible.	Use workbook activity; verbal rehearsal before writing if needed.
19–20	Common sense → Sociology	Turn assertion into investigable questions.	Require pattern + social influence + evidence.
21	Retrieval	Check retained knowledge.	Self-mark; reteach insecure concepts immediately.
22–23	Think Higher	Compare weak and stronger sociological reasoning.	Ask for mechanism and evidence.
24	Assessment	Independent 6-mark response.	Use mark guidance after completion, not before.
25–26	Review / flipped learning	Exit ticket and preparation for	Use exit responses to adapt next lesson.
