Read the three passages, then answer. Use fictional examples; no external research or personal disclosure is required.

A structural question

Patriarchy concerns patterns of gendered power; it is not a claim that every man controls every woman. Feminist analysis asks who does work, who controls resources and whose priorities influence decisions. Evidence about one dimension does not settle the others. A household can divide visible tasks fairly while leaving planning or major decisions unequally shared.

Two connected concepts

Patriarchy: A pattern of social organisation in which men hold disproportionate power. Feminism: Diverse approaches that analyse gender inequalities and seek their reduction.

A question to bring

Define patriarchy without making a claim about every individual. It is a patterned concentration of power among men in social arrangements. Individual relationships vary; the concept directs investigation rather than replacing evidence.

F1

Summarise the main idea in the first passage in one or two sentences.

F2

Define patriarchy and give an original fictional example.

F3

What evidence would you need to test the opening claim? Retrieve two current-lesson concepts tomorrow and next week.
