Read the three passages, then answer. Use fictional examples; no external research or personal disclosure is required.

Liberal feminist emphasis

Liberal feminist approaches focus on removing discrimination and widening equal rights and opportunities. Education, fair workplace practices and shared domestic responsibility may improve family relationships. This does not mean assuming equality already exists. A limitation to investigate is whether formal rights or individual negotiation are enough when access to money, time and care remains unequal.

Two connected concepts

Liberal feminism: An approach emphasising equal rights, opportunities and reform of discriminatory practices. Marxist feminism: An approach connecting gender inequality with capitalist relations and unpaid labour.

A question to bring

Link a liberal feminist diagnosis to one proposed change. If discriminatory expectations and unequal opportunities constrain women, reform workplace practices, education or shared care arrangements. Explain how the reform addresses the diagnosed barrier.

F1

Summarise the main idea in the first passage in one or two sentences.

F2

Define liberal feminism and give an original fictional example.
